

INTERNATIONAL WOODBLOCK PRINT EXHIBITION

Mokuhanga: Dialogue and Dialect

Place: Kyoto International Community House, 2 F (The Sister City Exhibition Hall)

Date: June 8 (Wed) –12 (Sun) 2011

Time: Open daily 10:00-17:00

This woodblock print exhibition is open for international artists. All prints made in the waterbased mokuhanga tradition or with contemporary materials that reflect mokuhanga principles have priority. Also accepted are woodcuts with mixed techniques that carry some Japanese influence.

Artists are requested to submit 1 work (or a set, in the case of a small series). Size of the paper should not exceed 80 x 60 cm (31" x 23").

JPEG images will be juried first. Submitted image should not exceed 1920 x1080 pixels, 72 dpi. Size limit is 1 MB. Submission is free.

Deadline for applications: December 18, 2010

Notification of acceptance: January 31, 2011

Deadline for receiving accepted artworks: April 30, 2011

Participation fee for those accepted: 6.000 yen / 55 dollars / 50 euro

The fee covers the framing and the return shipping.

Payment method and shipping instructions will be informed later to selected artists

Send your application form and JPEG image by e-mail to IMC2011 Office:

office@mokuhanga.jp

or post it with a photo of your artwork to:

IMC2011 Tokyo Office, P.O. Box 2061, Otemachi, Ginza Branch, 100-8799 JAPAN

In case of regular mail, please make sure that it must be postmarked by the application deadline.